Frantz Jacques Bernadin

APR 29, 1949 - JAN 23, 2026

In Loving Memory of

Frantz Jacques Bernadin

Transitioned to Glory on January 23, 2026

Frantz Jacques Bernadin was born on April 29, 1949, in Port-au-Prince, Haiti, to his beloved parents, Beauvais Bernadin and Resia Blanc. He was a devoted husband and a loving father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, known for his peaceful spirit, kindness, and deep love for family and community.

Throughout his life, Frantz was a hardworking and dedicated man. He proudly served as a volleyball coach, inspiring countless young people through discipline, teamwork, and encouragement. He also worked as a sales agent, where his honesty, patience, and warm personality earned him great respect and admiration.

A man of strong faith, Frantz preached peace and love not only through words, but through his daily actions. He believed deeply in unity, forgiveness, and compassion, and lived these values faithfully. His home was a place of wisdom, laughter, and warmth—always open to family, friends, and anyone in need of guidance or comfort.

Frantz shared 51 years of marriage with his beloved wife, Myrtho Bernadin, a true testament to enduring love, commitment, and partnership.

He is survived by his loving children: Fabienne Staco, Stephanie Ajakaye, Christina Bernadin, Emmanuel Bernadin, Jean Ernst Bernadin, and Pascal Jean-Phillipe.
